Richard Gibson

"A remarkable animal in physique, temperament and racetrack performance.

He's got such a good character. He's a Dubawi and they're known for their good temperaments, but really since the day he arrived here no-one has ever even once seen him with his ears back."

John Oxx

"He was a beautiful horse and one of my favourites ever, really... He was a beautiful horse to look at, and he had a wonderful temperament.

He was completely bombproof, nothing would flap him. We could work him as hard as he liked and he would take it in his stride. We never had any problems in getting him fit...

He had the constitution and temperament of a top-class horse, and that's rare enough. It's what distinguishes a top-class horse from the rest."

"The thing I like best about them is that they have a great attitude. We have a handful in training on behalf of Goldin Farms and they are really very good horses to do anything with"

Goldin Farms, formerly Lindsay Park Stud, is an esteemed 2000-acre horse breeding and training ground in South Australia. Established in 1965 by the Australian thoroughbred icon Colin Hayes AM OBE, it is a world-class breeding and training complex that today draws accolades from industry experts the world over. With a long tradition and an established reputation for breeding and training racehorses of the finest calibre, it is widely regarded as being an ideal equine environment.

“It is my hope to make the name Goldin Farms as synonymous to Angaston’s exciting future as Lindsay Park was to Angaston’s glorious past.”
